

She is the one

She is the one
    You'll meet in the pub
Little black dress
    A bum born to rub

She is the one
    Who's pretty; from afar
With a white lace thong
    And matching wonder bra

She is the one
    Tonight you'll take home
Who'll share your bed
    Reduce your brain to foam

She is the one
    Who'll go down every night
Swallow your cum
    Or spit out of sight

She is the one
    To break your heart
Who pours you a beer
    And ignores your fart

She is the one
    To arrive in stages
Some spare tights
    And then replacement faces

She is the one
    Who asks for a kitten
Drops hints for a ring
    Warning ignored; you're smitten

She is the one
    To orgasm in fake
To kidnap your friends
    And your love forsake

She is the one
    Who'll call you mister
Scratch out your eyes
    And sleep with your sister

She is the one
    Who's truth will bend
who keeps her expensive ring
    as she leaves with your best friend

She is the one
    Who's face you will hate
Who's sex is never bettered
    Who's crossed path you'll call fate

She is the one
    You'll hate with a lie
Replace with a cheap other
    But remember her till you die

SHE is the one
She IS the one
And don't you forget it.
